

Atlantic Richfield Foundation Matching Gift Program

10-30-1984, p. 4

Gift Restrictions The Foundation does not match Tuition payments. Fees for Service Pledges not yet paid in full. Business Trust Arrangements involving securities in payments. Subscription fees for publications. Tickets to cultural or social events. Payments for "benefit meals" at fund-raising events. Donations to religious, political or fraternal organizations. Gifts of real or personal property. Donations to private foundations that discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color or creed. The Foundation reserves the right to determine whether a gift shall be matched. In addition, Foundation officers and directors may periodically review and change the program as necessary. Gift Designations You may designate how you want your gift to be used, but the Foundation matching gift will go to unrestricted general support of the organization. Matching Procedures Complete Part A of the attached form and mail the entire form with your check or marketable securities to the organization—not to the Foundation.	Arts and Humanities All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like. Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example. Health All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on. Community Services All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job training or recreation organizations.
The financial needs of nonprofit organizations have never been greater. Yet most of these groups depend on private citizens—not corporations, foundations or about 90 percent of all their donated funds each year. In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees. For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched. Qualifying Organizations No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories: Education Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.	Hall of Life Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts Right: Colorado School of Mines

An office of the organization should complete and sign Part B, verifying receipt and intent of the gift in accordance with the conditions of the Matching Gifts Program. The verified form and copy of the Internal Revenue Service letter granting the organization 501(c)(3) status as a "public charity" should then be returned to the foundation within 90 days of the date of your gift.

Gift Restrictions

The Foundation does not match Tuition payments. Fees for Service Pledges not yet paid in full. Business Trust Arrangements involving securities in payments. Subscription fees for publications. Tickets to cultural or social events. Payments for "benefit meals" at fund-raising events. Donations to religious, political or fraternal organizations. Gifts of real or personal property. Donations to private foundations that discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color or creed.

The Foundation reserves the right to determine whether a gift shall be matched. In addition, Foundation officers and directors may periodically review and change the program as necessary.

Gift Designations

You may designate how you want your gift to be used, but the Foundation matching gift will go to unrestricted general support of the organization.

Matching Procedures

Complete Part A of the attached form and mail the entire form with your check or marketable securities to the organization—not to the Foundation.

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of Life

Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts

Colorado School of Mines

Right: Colorado School of Mines

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of Life

Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts

Colorado School of Mines

Right: Colorado School of Mines

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of Life

Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts

Colorado School of Mines

Right: Colorado School of Mines

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of Life

Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts

Colorado School of Mines

Right: Colorado School of Mines

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of Life

Above: Dallas Museum of Fine Arts

Colorado School of Mines

Right: Colorado School of Mines

Arts and Humanities

All arts and humanities organizations classified by the Internal Revenue Service as "public charities," quality, including museums, art galleries, theatres, choreographic centers and the like.

Major gifts may also be matched, providing they represent contributions to the organization rather than payments for tangible benefits or services—admissions to events, for example.

In order to encourage such personal giving, Atlantic Richfield Foundation has created the Matching Gifts Program. Any employee of Atlantic Richfield, as well as friends and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, can participate in this program, as are spouses and children of employees.

For gifts of $10 or more, the Foundation will match

two dollars for every dollar you give to qualified institutions. If you donate $20, for example, the Foundation will provide an additional $30. In fact, any combination of your personal gifts that does not exceed $20,000 in one year will be matched.

Qualifying Organizations

No gifts from tax-exempt public charities are eligible. In general, gifts will be matched in the following categories:

Education

Virtually all accredited colleges and universities, as well as primary, secondary and special schools, qualify for matching gifts. Alumni funds, foundations and associations that exist for charitable purposes are also eligible.

Health

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—including public, private, nonprofit, short-term hospitals accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, medical research centers, local health organizations and so on.

Community Services

All public charities that provide basic needs and services—for citizens in poverty, disabled, handicapped, elderly, unemployed, service agencies, educational groups, family services, job

Hall of